WILDCAT ANNOUNCEMENTS

What's The Main Dish: Beef Donairs
Soup of the Day is: French Onion

- Today Westview hosts Fraser North Championships for volleyball. As a result, changerooms will be closed from B block onward with no access to students. Students may not attend games during school but are welcome after school to watch the competition. Please stay clear of the gyms and adjacent hallways this afternoon.

- Grads, we are looking for Westview's nominee for the BC Excellence Scholarship. See the post on Instagram, your Grad Teams page or poster outside the Centre for more information. The deadline date is Wednesday, November 25.

- The Leadership class is currently hosting a period product drive for women in need in recognition of Canadian Women's History Month. We are calling upon students and staff members to help contribute by donating menstrual products such as tampons and pads. You can donate individual products or boxes but please make sure the products are sealed. If you plan on donating you can find baskets by Ms. O's class and in the front foyer. Thank you for your contributions!

- We have another weekly winner for the math contest. Congratulations to Nina W. in grade 12 for winning this weeks draw. Nina Please see Ms Garneau in room 2011 to claim your prize from the Wildcat Cafe. See the math bulletin board for this weeks problem and make sure you get your entry in before the end of the week!

There will be no sewing club today. See you next week!

Go Wildcats!
