MRSS Morning Announcements

Thursday, November 12th, 2026–Day 8-H-G-F-E

A MASSIVE CONGRATULATIONS to our Senior Girls volleyball team who won the district championship on Tuesday night defeating arch rivals Thomas Haney on their home court in the final.

The girls swept Westview in 2 sets in their opening round matchup before sweeping THSS in two sets in the final. It was a huge win for the team as they hadn't beat Thomas Haney in two previous matches.

The girls move on to the Fraser North Championships next week.

Do you have a great story idea?

Enter the Stories in the Snow Winter Writing Contest!

Write an original winter-themed short story of up to 1,500 words and you could win a free lunch.

Whether your story is about a snowstorm trapping students in a school, something lurking beneath the ice, or the last bus leaving without you, we want to hear what happens next. Creativity is key.

The contest is open to all students in Grades 8 through 12. Submit your story to Mr. Prachnau in Room 2028 by December 8th. Remember, you don't have to be a writer, you just need an idea!

Student Council members:

Reminder that your meeting is taking place today at lunch.

See you there!

Grade 8 girls basketball tryouts are taking place tomorrow, at 3pm in the small gym. All grade 8 girls are welcome.

The Environmental Club is having our First Meeting TODAY during Tutorial in room 2108. Everyone welcome!

Today in the Cafeteria we are serving;

- Minestrone Soup
- Breakfast Burrito with Hash Browns and Fresh Fruit
- Ham and Swiss Panini
- Cheesecake