September 30th is the NATIONAL DAY FOR TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION. It's a day to honour the survivors of residential schools, as well as the children who never went home.

It is also Orange Shirt Day, which was created by residential school survivor Phyllis Webstad, from the Secwepemc Canoe Creek First Nation. The purpose of Orange Shirt Day is to raise awareness of residential schools and spread the message that Every Child Matters.

Tomorrow at Memorial Peace Park in Maple Ridge, a Truth and Reconciliation event will be taking place from 10:00 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. The theme for the event this Saturday is 'The Healing Journey Continues'.

In the words of event organizer and Katzie Elder, Coleen Pierre, "As the days go by, the healing continues. The pain, anger and shame will never go away, but as the circle gets stronger every day, we do our best to be there for the survivors".

A reminder to students that there is no school on Monday and Tuesday – have a great weekend.
